Actual list of locations listening!

There is a large, active listening audience on SermonAudio with over 70,000 people receiving the weekly email newsletter! The site consistently ranks in Google's Top search results when searching for "audio sermons" and it now receives over 2-million pageviews per month.

Free Presbyterian Churches can tap into this unique opportunity and broadcast an unlimited number of audio sermons easily and effectively. We've also made it easy for visitors to type in their ZIP code and find U.S. churches that are local to them. Also enjoy built-in benefits like posting site-wide announcements, easily sharing photos, selling products in your own Web Store, offering live video and audio webcasts of your services, and so much more!

"The church in Mourne appreciates the opportunity to use the excellent facilities of SermonAudio. This worldwide ministry is seen as an extension of our local ministry at home. We are always very encouraged when requests for sermons come to us from across the world and for those who have emailed to say that they have appreciated the preaching of the word. It is our constant prayer that God would richly bless this work and that it will be a means of bringing many to Christ."
